

Tuesday Morning and Advent – Coming Lord
An Alternative Daily Office

Becoming present to God

Through a sign of attentiveness like lighting a candle or

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

Ever present God,

In this place and at this time, come to us.

My soul waits for the Lord.

More than the watchmen wait for the morning.

Hark the glad sound, the Saviour comes the Saviour promised long, let every heart prepare a throne and every voice a song

(Philip Dodderidge 1702-51)

Celebrating the presence of God

Coming King,

whose nature is always to be poured out in self-abandoning love, you created this world in love:

its spinning galaxies and every particle, its beauty and its balance, its terror and its fearful symmetry.

You crowned your creation in those you fashioned after your likeness,

God of One in Three and Three in One;

eternal relationship at the heart of all that is;

calling humankind into existence and giving them stewardship of this planet earth.

You came in Jesus Christ, who poured himself out in self-giving love through death on a cross, showing how your glory means giving not grasping.

You came by your Spirit, in words of grace and tongues of fire.
And you have come to us, in faces known and unknown in every gesture of grace and word of welcome,
opening our eyes
to your hidden beauty, in the cry of the new-born and the knowing gaze of those whose lives are long.

Help us to celebrate your presence as we seek to make known your love to the world, and as we look with hope to the new creation which will break in when you come again.
In Christ's name we pray. Amen.
A pause to name any specific thanks or praise

Acknowledging our humanity God of mercy and forgiveness, who comes to us as the One who bore our sins and cleanses us from all unrighteousness, we acknowledge that,
even as you have come to us, we have often avoided you.
We have not recognised your presence in the face of friend or stranger; nor have we listened to your voice.
Forgive our indifference, our haste and our turning away; the times when the cares of this world and hunger for the approval of others have threatened to overwhelm the seed of your kingdom.

Come and restore to us the primacy of your will and ways and fill us afresh with your sanctifying Spirit.

Listening for the Word of God

From The Common Lectionary

Canticle – Optional

The Glorious New Creation

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind.

But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating;
for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight.

I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people;

no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress.

No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime;

for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.

They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat;

for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

They shall not labour in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord—and their descendants as well.

Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear.

The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox;

but the serpent—its food shall be dust!

They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

Isaiah 65:17-25

or

The River of the Water of Life

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal,

flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city.

On either side of the river is the tree of life* with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month;

and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

Nothing accursed will be found there any more.

But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him;

they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

And there will be no more night;

they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign for ever and ever.

Revelation 22:1-5

Reflecting on our roots

Living God, enable us this day to be pilgrims and companions:

committed to the way of Christ, faithful to the call of Christ, discerning the mind of Christ, offering the welcome of Christ, growing in the likeness of Christ, engaging in the mission of Christ, in the world that belongs to Christ.

Bringing our concerns

We pray for the world in which good and evil flourish together like tares amongst wheat, until the end of the Age and your coming ushers in a new heaven and a new earth.

We recognise the presence of injustice,
oppression,
violence,
hatred,
indifference
and vengeance,
in a world which you created very good.

Until the day arrives when all will be put right and suffering, death and tears will be no more, until then may your Kingdom come through loving service; courageous witness to truth;
faithful standing with the poor; and selfless hunger for the good.

May your Kingdom come, your will be done
on earth, as it is in heaven. Amen

We pray for:

- World
- Church
- People

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Going to love and serve

Coming Lord,
whose arrival as the Bridegroom brings joy to those who are waiting help us this day to so recognise how we should serve you, that we shall be ready to do your good and perfect will,
and welcome your coming with joyful service and faithful hearts. Amen.
