

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

Going to love and serve

With the Shepherds we run to see what God is doing Give us ears to hear heaven's song today.

With the Magi,
we seek the birthing of Heaven's rule Give us eyes to see where Christ is at work today.

With Mary and Joseph, we hold Jesus close Give us compassion to care for God's world today.

Becoming present to God

Through a sign of attentiveness like lighting a candle

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

From lands that see the sun arise to earth's remotest boundaries let every heart awake and sing the Son of Mary, Christ the King.

Behold, the world's creator wears the form and fashion of a slave; our very flesh our maker shares, his fallen creature, us, to save.

*(Medieval carol, tr. J.M.Neale, and J.
Ellerton)*

or

Now the angels sing
Gloria in excelsis Deo, Glory to God in the highest.
Now heaven draws close to the child in a manger, divine food in a feeding trough.
Now the whole world trembles with awe and wonder, God has taken flesh and cries.
Now we join the carol and sing
'O come let us adore him.'

Celebrating the presence of God

King of Heaven the angels celebrated your birth announcing peace on earth and your gracious goodwill to all Your birth seeds hope to everyone

Good Shepherd, ordinary men watching sheep were the first to hear of your coming Your birth seeds justice to everyone.

Wisdom of God magi saw your star traveled long and hard and came to bow down and worship Your birth seeds wonder for everyone

Refugee God
even though Herod the King sought your death and weeping was heard in Ramah, Your birth seeds compassion for everyone.

Jesus, your birth sets the world alight with hope, and love; wonder and praise.
We come to your cradle, and bow down, and adore; we come to your cross, and bow down and are silent; we come to the empty tomb, and bow down and worship.

A pause to name any specific thanks or praise

Acknowledging our Humanity

We hear the angels' song and wonder what it might mean:
when we fail to worship and adore, Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy

We see the shepherd's obedience and wonder what it might mean:
when we fail to run to Bethlehem,
Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy

We watch Mary's tender care as you feed at her breast: when we find ourselves hungry and thirsty, longing for your presence, Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy

We touch the manger and plump the straw, we wrap the Christ-child and sing 'lulla', but we find no peace until we have cradled him in our heart.
Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy

Christ, born of Mary, We long to hold you in our arms wind you on our shoulder, rock you to sleep, and hold you safe.
But all we can do is carry you with our heart's fiercest love, our closest obedience, and our deepest tenderness.

Listening for the Word of God

From The Common Lectionary

Canticle – Optional

The Righteous Reign of the Coming King

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness - on them has light shined.
You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of the oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire

For a child has been born for us, a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders, and he is named Wonderful Counsellor,
Mighty God,
Everlasting Father,
Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish it and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Isaiah 9:27 (NRSV)

Or

O sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvellous things.
His right hand and his holy arm have gained him victory.
The Lord has made known his victory; he has revealed his vindication in the sight of the nations.
He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth;
break forth into joyous song and sing praises.
Sing praises to the Lord with the lyre, with the lyre and the sound of melody.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the Lord.

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; the world and those who live in it.
let the floods clap their hands; let the hills sing together for joy at the presence of the Lord, for he is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with equity.

Psalm 98:1-9 (NRSV)

Reflecting on our roots

Living God, enable us this day to be pilgrims and companions: committed to the way of Christ, faithful to the call of Christ, discerning the mind of Christ, offering the welcome of Christ, growing in the likeness of Christ, engaging in the mission of Christ, in the world that belongs to Christ.

Bringing our concerns

God, who sent your Son into the world that your saving power might be known among all people:

Remember the sick of soul, who in their pride do not know of your grace....

Remember the sick of body, who in their weakness suffer illness and infirmity....

Remember the sick of mind, who in their fear do not perceive your love....

Remember the sick of heart, who in their grief bereavement seems endless....

Free prayer

Lord, whose coming was bereft of earthly comforts, whose future was threatened by violence, whose kingly birth was attended by the least and the last, turn our world upside down by your kingdom rule, that we might see in your birth the signs of new creation for all. Amen.
